QUALITY COTATI-ROHNERT PARK SCHOOLS

Vote YES on Measure C

By Mail or on November 8

Vote YES on C to bring all Rohnert Park and Cotati schools up to current educational and safety standards and support 21st-century education.

Improved academic programs and a rigorous curriculum at our local schools have led to growing student achievement and enrollment. As enrollment increases, Measure C will ensure schools have the necessary classrooms, science labs and libraries to prevent overcrowding.

While some of our schools have been updated, many schools and classrooms are over 40 years old and require updates and upgrades to provide all students with a safe, modern learning environment. With Measure C, repairing aging heating and air conditioning systems can help cut utility bills, providing cost savings that can be used to support classroom teaching and core academic programs.

Yes on C Will:

- Update classrooms, science labs and libraries to meet modern academic standards
- Prevent classroom overcrowding
- Remove asbestos, lead and other hazardous materials from schools
- Ensure all schools meet current earthquake safety standards
- Build multiuse classrooms for performing arts, science and vocational education programs
- Make all classrooms accessible for students with disabilities

Fiscal Accountability:

- Measure C will make Cotati and Rohnert Park schools eligible for millions of dollars in state matching funds that will otherwise go to other communities
- All funds will stay local and cannot be taken away by Sacramento or used for administrators' salaries
- Independent citizens' oversight and annual audits will be required
- Measure C will help ensure developers pay their fair share of school construction costs

We are fortunate to live in a community that has supported our local schools, allowing us to complete the first phase of repairs and updates on time and budget. Measure C is needed for the next phase of improvements.

Please vote YES on C for safe, updated classrooms and labs for all Rohnert Park and Cotati students!
